SUBMIT OR ELSE: LESSONS FROM YESTER-WOMEN S LIVES

Efem Creations CC, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. MS Nazia Bacus, MR Dane Knudsen (illustrator). 203 x 133 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In today s world, billions of people are in one or more forms of relationships (marriage, friendship, boyfriend-girlfriend, employer-employee, parent-child, same-gender relationships, and so on). The Book SUBMIT or ELSE introduces you to what may be perceived as the Law of Submission. It focuses primarily on the role, challenges, and power of women in these relationships. It advocates the divine master-plan for mankind. Women are, and rightfully deserve to be, perceived as the pillars of strength in the family, relationships, and society at large. Nevertheless, they have always been, and still are, in a battlefield under attack by the devil in his earnest effort to thwart God s divine plan for mankind. At an individual level, you might be or have been in an abusive marriage or relationship or you might have witnessed such. You probably struggle with regard to communicating with your husband, wife, or children at some point. You might have been hurt by someone you otherwise ought to trust. You are not sure anymore where advice from your friends fits in with respect to your home-front matters. These typical instances extend to the business environment. The Law of Submission holds all these and other relationships on balance. Amongst other facets of life, this book addresses questions such as: (1) What is submission according to God s divine plan for mankind? (2) What are the consequences of successful or failed submission? (3) As a woman, should I submit to my husband or my father? (4) Where does homosexuality fit in with regards to submission? (5) Why do some men cheat on their wives? (6) How and when...
