I am highly appreciative of all counsel from the family of Dr. Wangare Gathuthi, my mentor and role model. Last but not least I acknowledge my family's contribution: Ms. Margaret Wambui (Mum) for her constant and unending encouragement, Tabitha Ndungu (my grandmother), for her prayers and love, Malvin Kim (son), for his constant smile that nudged me on till the end. To one and all, THANK YOU VERY MUCH. , abstract: Affirmative action is a practice that redresses discrimination in society and is therefore meant to promote equal opportunities between men and women. The purpose of this study was to examine the public perception of affirmative action on women recruitment and career development in organizations within Eldoret municipality. The study...
