Instant with the stroke I felt A weariness, as of a thousand years, Which cleft my bones, my marrow melted, crushed My firm-knit muscles, cracked each separate nerve, As He looked on me, terrible as God In judgment; while, with voice unheard by others, To me as awful as that which shall yet Pronounce the final sentence, He declared My doom, --to walk the earth until that day When He as final judge shall come again. Oh, dreadful! KALIPHILUS. Through my frame great terror ran, And Hell came surging o er me; everywhere Its mounting billows boiled, while awful gulfs Lay dark...
