Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Oratorical Year Book for 1865: Being a Collection of the Best Speeches Delivered in Parliament, at the Bar, and on the Platform In the present volume, which it is hoped is but the first of a long series, an attempt has been made to reproduce in a compact and popular form all the most conspicuous speeches delivered during the year 1865. Hitherto the addresses of our leading statesmen and orators have only been preserved in the columns of the daily press, or, if spoken in Parliament, in the elaborate and expensive volumes of Hansard's Debates. To refer to such sources for information is often an inconvenient and expensive process, whilst in the case of the Reports in Parliament a large portion of the volumes in which these speeches appear is necessarily occupied with matters of pure business, possessing but slight interest for the general reader. To bring, therefore, all the best utterances of the time on questions of general interest within the reach of all those who care to possess them, is the first object with which the present work has been undertaken. Apart from the interest which attaches to these collected speeches as specimens of cotemporary eloquence, their value as the most express record of the political and general opinions of the time cannot, it is conceived, be too highly estimated. For purposes of general reference, therefore, as well as of especial study by those to whom public speaking is a part of professional education, the Oratorical Year Book should have a peculiar value. Accordingly, in this view it is thought that all the most representative addresses of the year, even where...
