Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A Public Debate: Capitalism Vs; Socialism It seems to me that the function of a chairman of this debate ought to partake of the character of a referee ship. I believe that you would be most pleased if I were to simply make the debaters come forward, shake hands and then fall to, I standing by with my watch in hand to take the time. In fact, I really cannot see why the Chairman should say anything on this occasion. But; I suppose I was chosen for this sporting event because I am a middle-of-the-roader between the two. I am not a Socialist, and yet I am not one who believes that Socialists are wild beasts to be excluded from polite society and legislatures because we do not like their point of view on matters economic and social. I grew up in the tradition of the Manchester school of laissez faire and I still believe that if human nature were what it ought to be, the doctrines of this school would be the ones to...
