Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Introductory Address Delivered to the Students of Washington College, on Tuesday Evening, May 14, 1850 Gentlemen: For the purpose of adding to the advantages and the proper accomplishments of every scholar educated in this Institution, the Board of Trustees have provided, by the establishment of two Professorships, for brief courses of lectures, upon certain branches of Law and Medicine. The intention in creating these chairs, was not, that the instructions imparted should be extensive enough to make you either lawyers or physicians; but merely, that so much general information, on these subjects, should be communicated, as ought to be possessed by every gentleman enjoying the benefits of a liberal and polite education. The design was, that, while acquainting yourselves with the languages, customs, and manners of the Ancients; while traversing an extensive range of the difficult and abstruse studies of the Mathematics; while investigating the laws of the Material Universe, as developed in your text books on Astronomy, Geology and the kindred sciences, you might not remain wholly ignorant of the laws of your...
