In Homecoming Blues he faced the London Underworld. In Border Town Blues he faced the Mexican Mafia and Al-Qaeda. Now Dalton returns in his most explosive thriller yet! Terrorists explode Bombs in several cities around the globe, at the precise moment of detonation an assassins bullet takes out the President of the United States. In Virginia, a hit team attacks the headquarters of Unit, the organisation Jimmy Dalton and Jamie Duggan are now working for, forcing them to go on the run again, running from an elite group of families who have been controlling world events, from behind the scenes, for over a thousand years. The Council of 300 use the attacks to step out of the shadows with a message of peace, and a hidden agenda, world depopulation, and total domination. Dalton and Jamie, together with a rag tag army of misfits, are the only ones standing between the Council, and the death of freedom, as we know it. Jericho Blues takes you on a wild ride from Washington to New York, and on to an explosive showdown in the new San Francisco Ghetto. You think you know who rules your country. . . Think again! You think you know history. . . Think again! Dalton is a bit like what Lee Childs Jack Reacher might be like if he was from a working class British background Aidan Thorn. REWIEWSa full on action packed read full of suspense that makes this an absolute compelling read. PebblesThe concept is very interesting and makes you have a real look at what is happening around us with all the control factors that are in place now. Must be read with an open mind....
