LEON COUNTY, FLORIDA: A DESCRIPTIVE PAMPHLET (CLASSIC REPRINT)

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Leon County, Florida: A Descriptive Pamphlet The northern tier of counties comprising Middle Florida and embracing all that portion of the State lying between the Suwannee river on the east and the Apalachicola river on the west, and between the Georgia line on the north and the Gulf coast on the south, is about one hundred and fifty miles in length, east and west, and varying in width from forty to ninety miles, north and south. The topography of the country included in the above boundaries is exceedingly varied and interesting. Along the Gulf coast the surface consists of almost continuous marshes and swamps, not deleterious to health, being salt, but forbidding residence and cultivation within some miles of the Gulf waters. Next come low table lands covered with pine and cypress forests, and known as the fiat woods, and the piney woods. These extend to the foot of the hills, which form the third level of elevation, and, beginning from twelve to twenty miles back from the coast, rise in successive gently undulating elevations to the height of nearly three hundred feet above the level of the sea. These hills, with the broad, fertile valleys which lie between them and the high table lands which extend northward into Georgia, were originally, and are yet partially covered with a magnificent growth of live-oak, pine, red bay or Florida mahogany, magnolia, water-oak, hickory, black-oak, white-oak, and other hard woods, and are interspersed with numerous water-courses, lakes and ponds of pure fresh water. The Jacksonville, Pensacola and Mobile Railroad, extending with its connections from Savannah and Jacksonville to the Apalachicola river, passes through the several counties of...
