I am an attorney with Saltman and Stevens here in Washington, D. C. and I am be-fore you representing Fred Vreeman who is the president of Kings Canyon Park Services. Mr. Vreeman was unable to make the nec-essary travel arrangements to be here. In my testimony I am going to discuss some of the specific expe-riences that Kings Canyon has had in the last 4 years in operating a concessions contract it has at Kings Canyon. It is my hope in dis-cussing his experiences, I will help you better identify the problems with the current administration of the Park Services concession program, as well as the solutions to those problems. To give you some brief background, Kings Canyon Park Service owns and operates various lodging facilities in Kings Canyon Na-tional Park, as well as Sequoia National Forest which is run by the U. S. Forest Service. They signed a contract back in October 1996 for a term of 15 years. The contract specifically called for a con-struction phase in the first 5 years of the contract and an invest-ment by the contractor of 3. 8 million. This period is very critical to the contract because the remaining 10 years are then available to recoup the investment that the contractor makes. The economic viability of the contract in fact is dependent upon this construction period being maintained. When Kings Canyon Park Service entered into its...
