Amateur representation may be made without such application and without charge. Act I. - Drawing room at the Squire s home. Morning of a day in June. Nan. Evans, the only child of Squire Evans, returns home from boarding school, informs her father that she is engaged to the brother of a school chum, Billy Nash, and asks his consent, which is refused on the ground that she is already engaged to a wealthy bachelor friend of the Squire s, Thomas Green. Billy writes Nan. that he is coming, addressing the letter Miss Nancy Evans. An old maid aunt of Nan s for whom Nan. is named, receives the letter, thinking it is for her. Billy comes, meets the spinster, thinks she is crazy and by a clever ruse he escapes. Billy returns, by mistake meets Green, thinking he is...
